MEDITATION

ONLY CHRIST
(BREASTPLATE of ST. PATRICK)
Grillone

Christ with me,
Christ before me,
Christ behind me,
Christ in me.

Christ beneath me,
Christ above me,
Christ on my right,
Christ on my left.

In the heart of everyone who thinks of me,
in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,
Christ, oh Christ, Christ, only Christ.

Christ when I lie down,
Christ when I sit down,
Christ when I arise,
Christ when I die.

In the heart of everyone who thinks of me,
in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,
In the eyes of everyone who sees me,
in the ears of everyone who hears me,
Christ, oh Christ, Christ, only Christ.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

AN IRISH BLESSING
by: Rich & Michele Grillone

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall softly upon your fields.

And until we meet again,
May God hold you,
may God hold you,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
Amen.

LITURGY of THE WORD

FIRST READINGJEREMIAH 31:31-34

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant I made with their fathers the day I took them by the hand to lead them forth from the land of Egypt; for they broke my covenant, and I had to show myself their master, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD. I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer will they have need to teach their friends and relatives how to know the LORD. All, from least to greatest, shall know me, says the LORD, for I will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more.

SECOND READINGHEBREWS 5:7-9

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

In the days when Christ Jesus was in the flesh, he offered prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

GOSPELJOHN 12:20-33

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John Glory to you, O Lord.

Some Greeks who had come to worship at the Passover Feast came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just a grain of wheat; but if it dies, it produces much fruit. Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be. The Father will honor whoever serves me.

“I am troubled now. Yet what should I say? ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour. Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it and will glorify it again.” The crowd there heard it and said it was thunder; but others said, “An angel has spoken to him.” Jesus answered and said, “This voice did not come for my sake but for yours. Now is the time of judgment on this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.” He said this indicating the kind of death he would die.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
